Australia's best to clash at The Meadows on February 19

Invitations for three of the biggest races of the Sky Racing Australian Cup Carnival - including The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel - have been sent out in readiness for one of the most anticipated nights of racing on the greyhound-racing calendar.

The Meadows welcomes back superstar chasers El Grand Senor and the flying Kilty Lad, the last two Group 1 winners over the 525-metre journey at the Broadmeadows circuit. The sprinters will battle it out in The Temlee, worth $50,000 to the winner, the middle-distance stars will go head to head in The Rookie Rebel ($25,000), while the best half-milers in the land will be vying for the $30,000 first prize in The Zoom Top. All races are sponsored by Macro Meats, leaders in wild gourmet game meat.

The night will also host heats of the MTD Australian Cup over 525 metres, with the final on March 5 worth $150,000 to the winner. Fields for The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel will be determined on the Catching Pen on February 7, with new host Dave Carlson.
