Final acceptances in for racing extravaganza at The Meadows on February 19

The final acceptances for Group races The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel – to be held on an amazing night of racing at The Meadows on February 19 - have been released, kicking off the three-week $650,000 Sky Racing Australian Cup Carnival.

The who's who of Australian greyhound racing will feature on what will be another fabulous night over all distances at The Meadows, including the return of champion sprinter El Grand Senor to the Broadmeadows circuit - the venue of his outstanding Group 1 TOPGUN victory last October. The greyhounds listed below have won a combined total of $4.925 million in prizemoney, clearly demonstrating the quality on show for the three invitation-only races on February 19.

The night will also host heats of the MTD Australian Cup, with the final on March 5 worth $150,000 to the winner. The MTD Australian Cup will be one of two Group 1 races on the night, with the Macro Meats Super Stayers final over 725 metres becoming the perfect prelude to one of the country's greatest sprint events.

Fields for The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel will be announced on The Catching Pen on February 7, with new host Dave Carlson.
