MGRA Chairman Eddie Caruana takes out Ken Carr Medal

MGRA Chairman Eddie Caruana has been awarded this year's Ken Carr Medal at a lavish GRV Greyhound of the Year Awards ceremony at Crown Casino on Friday night, in recognition of his tireless work within the industry.

The medal - named after another legendary MGRA administrator Ken Carr, who went on to become one of the most lauded administrators in the history of the sport - recognises a person's outstanding contribution to greyhound racing.

Caruana joined the committee of the MGRA in 1995, and has been Chairman since 2001. Under his reign, the MGRA – with help from its committee and hard-working staff - has grown from strength to strength at its home base at The Meadows, including the increasingly popular Saturday night meetings, which consistently draws big crowds to its modern, upper-level dining area.

After arriving from Malta at age 15 – supporting his family after the passing of his father - Eddie decided to attend a race meeting at Olympic Park, and became immediately hooked. His interest and passion in the sport has not waned since, and his Ken Carr Medal is icing on the cake, according to MGRA Manager Marg Long.

“It is certainly a well deserved award for Eddie. His passion and love for the industry cannot be questioned. Everybody at The Meadows would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Eddie on winning the Ken Carr Medal.”
