Lady hard to beat in Topcat Video Stayers Cup at The Meadows

Group finalists Granduer and Lady Arko face off again at The Meadows on Saturday night, this time in the $15,000-to-the-winner Topcat Video Stayers Cup over 725 metres.

Lady Arko (box five) – who has missed a place in just one of her last eight starts – looks the greyhound to beat on recent form, which included an unlucky second behind Dashing Corsair in the Group 1 National Distance Championship in August. The Darren McDonald-trained chaser defeated Granduer to win her way into the National Distance Final with a stirring win last month.

Since then, the daughter of Where's Pedro and Zarbo recorded a brilliant 42.31 win at Wentworth Park before finishing sixth in the Group 3 Chairman's Cup behind fellow Victorian Shimaguni.

Her main danger, the locally-trained chaser Granduer (box eight), is a greyhound boasting a 42.62PB over the journey. The son of Mogambo and Off Springer is in great form, winning by eight and three quarter lengths at Ballarat in a fast 37.71 on September 14.

Others looking to upset the leading pair include the classy Bling It On (box two) and the well-bred Kinga Will (box three), who is looking to bring up a hat-trick of wins after solid victories at The Meadows (42.90) and Sandown (42.22).

Saturday night also sees seven Grade 5 heats with a Super GOBIS final to be run a week later. The countdown to the Group 1 Sky Racing TOPGUN also continues, with initial invitations sent out to chosen greyhounds next week.
