Fancy Will out of TOPGUN calculations

Anthony Azzopardi - trainer of recent Paws of Thunder winner Fancy Will – has announced he will not be accepting an invitation to bring his star chaser down for the Group 1 Sky Racing TOPGUN, to be held on October 22.

Instead, the son of Where's Pedro and Sweet Fancy will be set for the Group 2 Lismore Cup, which kicks off on October 18.

The Meadows Manager Marg Long said the final eight is still shaping up as one of the best fields assembled for 2011.

"It is a shame Fancy Will won't be making the trek down, but the final field (to be announced at next Saturday night's Meadows meeting) is still set to be an absolute cracker."

The TOPGUN panel will meet this Friday to finalise the field, with connections having until Thursday to accept first-round invitations.

The October 22 TOPGUN meeting will also see the running of heats for the Group 2 City of Hume Cup over the popular 600-metre journey, last year taken out by the brilliant Flash Of Light.
