Group 1 Silver Chief heats to kick off this Saturday night!

Australia's finest young male greyhounds will begin their quest for ultimate glory at The Meadows this Saturday night in 12 quality heats of the Group 1 Macro Meats Silver Chief over 525 metres.

The headline act among the excellent array of gallopers is recent Ballarat Cup winner and Melbourne Cup runner-up Dyna Lachlan (race two, box eight), a greyhound looking to qualify for his eighth Group final (fifth at Group 1 level) in just a tick over 30 career appearances. The son of Go Wild Teddy and Benden Flex is one of 11 greyhounds running on Saturday under the care of Anakie trainer Andrea Dailly.

Recent Great Chase winner Sheoak Ian will be looking to make it two Group victories at The Meadows in as many months, despite drawing poorly in box five in the last of the night's heats.

The interstate brigade is led by outstanding young sprinter Goodesy (Collision – Frosty Fruits) who trialled a brilliant 29.78 at his first look at the Broadmeadows circuit last week. The John Finn-trained galloper has won eight of his nine starts, including a 13-length win at Wentworth Park in 29.95 on October 5. The up and coming sprinter will line up in the fourth of the Silver Chief heats.

Winners, runners-up and the eight fastest thirds from Saturday night's heats will progress to semi-finals on December 26, each moving one step closer to qualifying for the $50,000-to-the-winner Silver Chief final on January 2.

The first race kicks off this Saturday at 7.12pm. For affordable dining packages throughout the Silver Chief series, contact The Meadows on 9355 5255.
