Semi-final showdown in a Boxing Day bonanza at The Meadows

This Saturday night, four fabulous semi-finals of the Group 1 Macro Meats Silver Chief will round out what has been a fantastic year of racing at The Meadows.

A group of 32 greyhounds will move one step closer to etching their name on one of greyhound racing's finest honour rolls, already boasting names such as Black Diro, Chariot Supreme, Ginger, Awesome Assassin and former track record holder Big Daddy Cool.

The first semi sees impressive heat winner Papa Cool (box one) take on the likes of Mick The Mozz, the speedy Zenith and the Darren McDonald-trained Gnarley Boy. The second semi-final looks the toughest of the night, with the brilliant Dyna Lachlan handed no favours after drawing box five in a race choc-full of talent.

The royally bred Rev Limiter (box five) and Enry Walt (box eight) look the hardest to beat in semi-final number three, while speed demons Sheoak Ian and Silent Guardian look set for a battle royal in the last of the qualifying rounds.

First and second placegetters will progress to the Silver Chief final on January 2, worth $50,000 to the winner.
