Greyhound racing's top names to star on February 13

Invitations for three of the biggest races of the Sky Channel Australian Cup Carnival - including The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel - have been sent out in what promises to be a racing extravaganza on February 13 at The Meadows.

Some of the biggest names in the country, including Group 1 winners Cindeen Shelby, Prankster, Lord Ducal and Mantra Lad will headline a stud-studded night of racing. The sprinters will battle it out in The Temlee, worth $50,000 to the winner, the middle-distance stars will go head to head in The Rookie Rebel ($25,000), while the best half-milers in the land will be vying for the $30,000 first prize in The Zoom Top. All races are sponsored by Macro Meats, leaders in wild gourmet game meat.

The night will also host heats of the MTD Australian Cup over 525 metres, with the final on February 27 worth $150,000 to the winner. Fields for The Temlee, The Zoom Top and The Rookie Rebel will be determined on January 29 and announced on Sky Channel's The Catching Pen on January 31.
