Prankster looking to give Britton an Australian Cup three-peat

Lara trainer Robert Britton will be aiming for his third MTD Group 1 Australian Cup success when he puts the blue rug on classy chaser Prankster this Saturday night at The Meadows.

Britton will be hoping the son of Bombastic Shiraz and Classy Alice will join previous winners Isa Brown (2002) and Tasman Queen (2008) on the winner dais, potentially adding to his Group 1 Hobart Thousand victory in December.

In a sign of Prankster's amazing ability, Saturday's MTD Australian Cup will be his fifth Group 1 final since November, 2009, making the finals of the Melbourne Cup (7th), Hobart Thousand (1st), Adelaide Cup (6th) and the Macro Meats Temlee (3rd).

A win this Saturday will more than double his current prizemoney level of $147,200. His task will certainly be a difficult one, taking on the likes of Queensland star High Earner, the well-boxed Dyna Lachlan and fastest semi-final winner Birthday Boy.

The Meadows – which offers free entry to all patrons this Saturday night – will come alive with guest appearances from Melbourne Victory striker Archie Thompson and Melbourne Vixens star Bianca Chatfield. The night will also be host to a live band, a $5000 Big Bucks Competition, a celebrity Mower Race, Camp Australia Entertainment for the kids, free showbags and bonus mystery bets.
