Swanky victory in Vic. Breeders Final at The Meadows

The Gary Ennis-trained, Max Maas-owned Swanky Lee ($6.30) upstaged some of his more fancied rivals to lead throughout in the Vic. Breeders Final at The Meadows over 525 metres last Saturday night.

The son of Brett Lee and Xanadu Dancer recorded splits of 5.17 and 18.00 before getting home in 30.46, one and a quarter lengths ahead of Special Freddy ($5.90), with even money-favourite Ed Pacino two and half lengths further back in third.

The victory was Swanky Lee's first from three career starts, adding the $12,000 first prize to his bank account and a further $2400 to connections via a GOBIS bonus. Breeder Gary Ennis also received a $1500 bonus as the breeder of Swanky Lee, capping off a lucrative night at The Meadows.

The racing hots up again this Saturday night with heats of the Group 3 Top Cat Video Cup over 725 metres, with the $20,000-to-the-winner final on September 25.
