Guns set to fire in Group 3 Sport 927 Silver Bullet

The racing world will get the perfect warm-up to the big race on that first Tuesday in November with the running of the Group 3 Sport 927 Silver Bullet on Monday night's Melbourne Cup-eve racing at The Meadows.

Group winning chasers Snozz and Arsonist are set to do battle with some of the brightest chasers in the state over the 525-metre journey, including the flying Greywinds Doll (box seven) and the Graeme Bate-trained stars Kinka Bale and Dyna Forte in the $15,000-to-the-winner final.

Snozz – fresh off an impressive third in last week's Group 1 Sky Racing TOPGUN – will start from box eight in Monday's black type event, looking to improve his record to 28 wins from 76 starts and close to $200,000 in prizemoney.

Arsonist (box two), a winner of the Group 2 Launching Pad in February, will contest her seventh Group final in just 34 race starts for Lake Goldsmith trainer Heather Collins.

The race will be one of two Group events on the night, with the Group 2 City of Hume Cup over 600 metres (race eight) adding to an already fantastic evening of racing at the popular Broadmeadows circuit.

Melbourne Cup eve at The Meadows will be the perfect place to be for you and your family. Along with free kids activities care of CAMP Australia, including face painting and rides, children will also go into the draw to win one of 10 bikes. Adults can go into a draw to win a Sharp large screen LCD and surround sound system.
