Young stars ready to clash in heats of Group 1 classic

Group racing returns to The Meadows with 10 heats of the Group 1 Silver Chief Classic over 525 metres this Saturday night.

The night kicks off with the brilliant young sprinter Sir Prize – a winner of his first eight starts, including five at The Meadows – drawn perfectly in box one. The son of Hallucinate and Prize Princess will very hard to beat, especially if he runs up to his brilliant 29.90PB, recorded this month.

The outstanding from continues in heat two, with former New South Wales chaser Malbro Man (12 wins from 17 starts) starting from box three against Meadows Vic. Breeders winner Swanky Lee and quality youngster Kinga Cam.

The Darren McDonald-trained Perfect Fancy, who is a half brother to Group 1 National Sprint Champion Smooth Fancy – will start a short-priced favourite in heat three on the back of his outstanding 29.80 win at The Meadows three starts back.

Other greyhounds to keep an eye out for on heat night include quality middle-distance chaser Humdrum (Bombastic Shiraz – Molly's Osti), who will start from box six in heat ten, the flying Kilty Lad (box three, heat nine), who is fresh off his win in the Group 3 WA Young Star Classic and the highly anticipated clash of in-from chasers Ed Pacino and Jeramiah Johnson.

The top three placegetters and the two fastest fourths will progress to Saturday week's semi-finals, with the January 1 Group 1 final worth $50,000 to the winner.

The first race on Saturday night kicks off at 7.12pm.
